win out last night, and he did it and won the $50 purse.

It took the finest kind of skill and gameness, for Fred Teller put the Norwich roller in the hole at the start by winning the first game 118 to 101. But the next six and the match were Murphy's, although Teller had two chances to win out, since the Norwich pinsplitter, led him by only two pins in the third string and five pins in the fifth.

Murphy to Manage Bridgeport Alleys

Sensational to the limit were the seven final games at the Rose alleys on Monday night, in the Murphy-Tellier duckpin match, converting the Murphy supporters into a crowd of howling fanatics as they saw their favorite hit up a smoking trail down the alleys and smatch the prize money from the waiting Waterburian. After losing six out of eight games to Teller in Waterbury, two weeks ago, it was up to Allie to get six out of the seven to he will be greatly missed here, as he has been an especially popular assistant for Manager Stone. The good wishes of scores of friends will be with Allie. Manager Stone is pleahed that the Rose alleys can have the credit of developing one of the star duckpin artists of the state.

Fred Frost New Assistant. Fred Frost New Assistant.

Fred Frost, a prominent local roller, has been secured by Manager Stone to take Murphy's place as assistant, and he will enter upon his duties at once. Fred is quite a roller himself, having played on some of the teams in the New London and Westerly matches a year ago, but is somewhat out of practice now. He will make a popular man at the alleys, and will soon be putting down some scores when he gets his arm to swinging right. For the present Manager Stone will do the rolling for the house.

by the high prices of cotton and wheat.

The decreased activity of the market is ascribed to the purpose to await more explicit information on sundry subjects. The recess of the supreme court approaching an end, the weekly conjecture on a possible deceision in the American Tobacco case is expected to reassert an influence. The large deliveries of copper into consumption during January are regarded as being prompted by the belief in an agreement amongst producers to restrict output, and there is apprehension that this laying in of stocks will curtail the later demand for that metal.

Bonds were irregular. Total sales, par value, $2,760,000. United States bonds were unchanged on call.

MOORE VS. DRISCOLL. Pal Will Try to Continue His Winning Record Against Boyo Driscoll.

Two bouts will claim special attention from the followers of the fighting game this week, the first on Friday, when Pal Moore meets Boyo Driscoll of Engiand, and the second on Sarurday, when Johnny Conlon, who claims the bantamweight championship of America, and Jim Kendricks, bantamweight champion of England, will clash at New Orleans on Saturday night.

Driscoll was brought from England at New Orleans on Saturday night.

Driscoll was brought from England by Charley Harvey early last fall, after putting him through a thorough course of training for over three months, and he was tried out with Frankie Nell.

While he made a very creditable showing, he was not able to avoid Nell's terrific left swings, which weakened him as the bout progressed, and he was very tired at the end of the 10th round. His friends claim he was not thoroughly acclimated at that time and predict that he will stop Moore's winning streak in the coming contest. Moore, who is only 18 years old, is getting bigger every day and it will be but a short time when he will be a full-fiedged featherweight. Those who have seen him perform of late predict he will be a likely candidate for Abe Attell's title within a year. The outcome of Friday night's battle will be looked for with interest throughout the country.

WAGNER'S FINE RECORD. Never Had a Lasting Batting Slump in Thirteen Years.

Some remarkable statistics are revealed by a diagnosis of the record of Hans Wagner, who has been playing major league ball since 1897. The record shows that in thirteen years the Flying Dutchman has taken part in 1,743 games. He has scored 1,263 runs and stolen 568 bases. He has played an average of 134 games each season. Had he played in all the games the first year he joined the Louisville club his average would have been more than 160 runs each season, but in 1897 he was not obtained from the Paterson (N. J.) club until the campaign was well under way, and took part in only 67 games. Some remarkable statistics are re-

Honus has never had a lasting slump in his hitting in all the years of his career. There have been times each season when his batting eye was dimmed, but it was only temporarily, and he always came back and hit the ball so much harder after the slump was

His consistency as a sticker is shown by the fact that in thirteen years he has averaged virtually 180 bingles per season. His best years were in 1909 and 1908, in each of which he had 201 safeties. With the exception of the first year in fast company he has safeties. With the exception of the first year in fast company he has never made less than 170 hits a year.

At the present time it seems as if these trotters had as great speed possibilities as any in training. Just what can be expected of each next summer cannot be positively stated now, but it is thought that all three will be prepared with the hope of acquiring a record as close to two minutes as it is possible for them to go.

NELSON AND WOLGAST To Finish Training This Week for 45-Round Battle.

Battling Nelson and Ad Wolgast, who will fight for the lightweight champion-ship in a 45-round bout near Oakland. Cal., on Washington's birthday, will finish their training the latter part of this week. Wolgast has not been over-exerting filmself, as he is close to the weight, 133 pounds, ringside, and is afraid of going stale. But Nelson, who has to take off nearly ten pounds, will keep on working up to the last possible moment.

Nelson is quoted favorite at 2 to 1, as the coast experts figure that he will wear the Milwaukee boy down in a long drawn out contest. Eddle Smith has been agreed upon as the referee.

Outside of the large crop of green trotters and pacers that will be out this season, horsemen will take more interest, perhaps, in three noted trotters than any others among the aged horses than any others among the aged horses to be raced. This trio includes Uhlan, 2.021-4, the dashing black gelding that C. K. G. Billings paid $35,000 for last year; The Harvester, 2.06 3-4, and Pense Maid, 2.041-4, the largest stake winning trotter on the Grand Circuit the past season.

At the present time it seems as a few months of the past season.

Death of Mrs. James McGaughey, widow of James McGaughey, died at 1.30 o'clock at her home on Clift street after impaired health for five years. She took cold on Wednesday last and pneumonia developed, Mrs. McGaughey was born on February 11, 1831, and was 79 years old last Friday. She has resided here for over 50 years. She was a member of St. Mark's Episcopel church. She leaves two sons, William McGaughey of this place, and four daughters, Mrs. George Crandall and Mrs. Maria Malone of New London, Mrs. Merchant of the past season.

At the present time it seems as a few long of the past season.

Bright and Steady

The Rayo Lamp

A bright and steady light depends upon the United Tea Importers Co., construction of the lamp.

The best skill has put forth its best effort in perfecting the Rayo Lamp. As the air is fed to the flame-so does the light burn. The easy-flowing current of air through the air-tube of the Rayo Lamp secures a uniform light, with never a flicker or flare.

The ideal family lamp. Made of brass throughout and beautifully nickeled. The Rayo is a low-priced lamp, but you cannot get a better lamp at any price.
